NEW BUSINESS

- 1) Penny Jones was in attendance. She is with the Upper Providence Environmental Commission. She advised that she is new to the Commission. She was interested in meeting the Rec Board to open a line of communication between the groups. Also thought it would be helpful in partnering together to work with the Upper Providence Friends of Open Space to formulate best options on how to utilize Lou Scott Park for environmental education opportunities. UP Rec Board agreed this would be a positive coalition and will work with the UP Environmental Commission on future projects regarding any Upper Providence parks.
